Nobody cared who I was until I put the mask on Damien Lee Fraley is a resident of Brick Township, NJ, and has only just recently joined the fold of the Proud Boys, though he has always been a shitty violent racist. It is currently unknown if he has contact or affiliation with any official Proud Boy organization or has just decided to take up the title independently because he wanted to see how far he could go with being a scumbag. Other members listed on this website like Michael McGuigan and Kalin Schweizerhof seem to have taken a similar trajectory, taking up the Proud Boy name without actually organizing with any official Proud Boy groups. He is nonetheless a dangerous person and has expressed interest in attending events in Philadelphia, so he must be exposed.

Totally original "We The People" tattoo on his right forearm

Fraley takes up the mantle of typical conservative causes, most recently fixating on statue removals. He signed a petition to protect the sanctity of a Christopher Columbus statue in northern New Jersey.

On top of that however, is also extremely, unapologetically racist and transphobic. His facebook posts really just speak for themselves (Cw: Racial slurs)

Damien with the hard R and the "I do not accept Muslims" and the "I hate most Mexicans I've met"

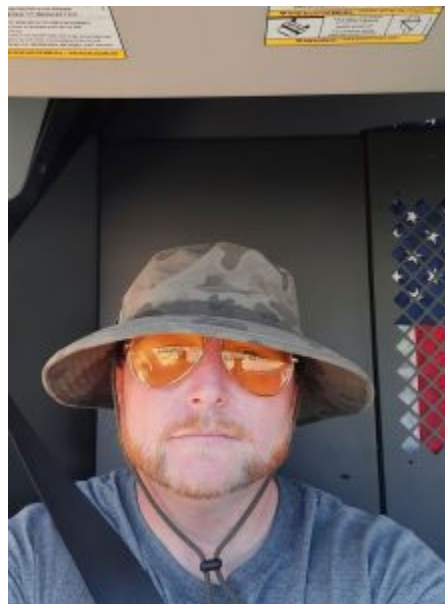

To top it off he is also very violent- the only content on his facebook that rivals bigoted shit in number is vague threats and fantasies about committing violence. It really is not a stretch to state that he presents a legitimate danger to any minorities he comes in contact with.

Damien is currently employed as a Pool Builder by Offshore Pools in Brick, NJ. You can contact them at (732) 477-7073. You should let them know that they employ a violent white supremacist, one who is granted access to people's homes, which is troubling and disturbing.

Damien, presumably in his work truck
