Rousseau lived in his father's house in Grapevine, Texas before moving to Haslet, Texas. Patriot Front is known for its tightly coordinated theatrical performances where they show up “flash mob” style with smoke bombs and flares chanting and then quickly dispersing.

Less than one month after Tristan was arrested for Deadly Conduct and his arrest record appeared on the internet, someone created the url `tristanmichaelangeloYeagerdenton [dot] com`. This most likely was an effort to manage Yeager's reputation through SEO (search engine optimization).

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the address bar displaying "http://tristanmichaelangeloeyeragerd...". The Namecheap logo is visible in the top left. The main content area has a blue and green background with a dark blue box containing a red warning triangle and the text "Whois verification is pending". Below this, a white progress bar is shown. The text "Since January 2014, all ICANN accredited registrars (like Namecheap) have been required to verify the contact information (Registrant Whois) of customers registering domain names. This includes modifications to the contact details." is displayed. At the bottom, the text "Why this domain has been suspended" is shown, followed by a grey box containing the text "We need email address verification from the owner".

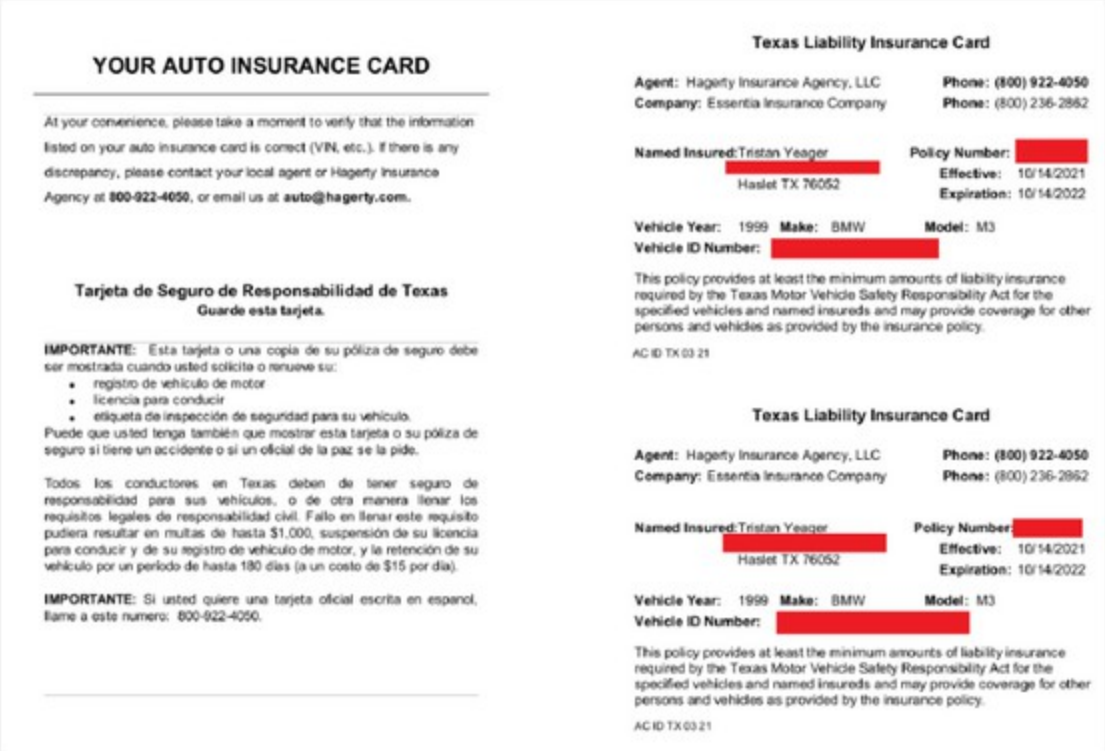

TRISTAN YEAGER RESIDENCE IN HASLET, TX

Residents at Patriot Front headquarters in Haslet have a practice of removing their license plates, but that was easily circumvented by information disclosed in the recent Unicorn Riot/DDOSecrets leak.

- Occupants of the residential property in Haslet, TX currently being used as the headquarters of the neo-Nazi organization, Patriot Front, often remove their vehicle license plates while parked at the property.

Additionally, the information contained in a leaked proof of liability insurance card bearing Yeager’s name also matches the address of Patriot Front headquarters in Haslet, TX. The vehicle make, model, and year also matches the description parked in the driveway at the residential property.

Unfortunately I don't have the needed rocketchat permissions to do that. @Michael TX should have the permissions and I think he has done some setup on the vetting server that is similar.
