Meet Tom Weeks of Bellingham WA and owner of "Weeks Custom Carpentry." Two days ago he tried to drive through protestors at a #BLMprotest in the city.

According to witnesses, he drove towards the crowd and continued to drive into the demo. Luckily, nobody was hurt.

Tom Weeks wasn't done though. He posted a self-serving and false narrative about the incident that certainly make it seem as if his presence at the rally wasn't an accident.

But, none of the media reports match up with Weeks account of rampaging anarchists taking over the downtown area. Weeks made it up.

Looking through his social media profile, we get a clue about his possible motivations to do so. Dogwhistle white supremacist hand gesture.

Some of his own friends question his account of events on FB and he pushes back referencing the "Proud Boys"

Rebels by anarchists trying to take over our town! Tell me, what was your position on the "proud boys" who were not "proud boys", but that's probably how you will remember the rednecks who stood peacefully on railroad a bit ago? They didn't block anything.
